President and Cardinal.

CAPE MAY, N. J., July 14.—Last Saturday the President and Cardinal Gibbons accidentally met here, and there was a cordial greeting between them. After a brief talk they came in front of the President's cottage, when Mr. Harrison invited the Cardinal to enter. In the course of a pleasant conversation of about half an hour it is stated that the President introduced the subject of the Cahonsly memorial. He gave his opinion quite freely on the subject, and said that while having no disposition to interfere in church matters he was glad to have an opportunity for expressing his satisfaction at the published remarks of the Cardinal and at the merited rebuke administered at home and abroad to foreign interference in our domestic affairs. The Cardinal, it is said, was deeply impressed and very much pleased with the President's views on the subject.

She Knows Too Much.

JOSHUA, Tex., July 15.—This town is much excited over the tragedy of Monday night last, when the three children of G. A. Newberry were murdered, their throats being cut, and old Mrs. Newberry, grandmother of the children, was frightfully cut, being, as she alleges, tied to a post by two masked men while the frightful work was in progress. It was first reported that the old lady was killed. Early yesterday morning there were doubts of the truth of the story of Mrs. Newberry, and before night it was whispered around that she had committed the deed. The old lady seemed to know too much about the affair for a woman who had been cut in the throat 17 times by the persons who murdered the children. She has been arrested and taken to Cleburne to-night. The only theory advanced is that the old lady was demented.

Carnegie and Labor.

PITTSBURGH, July 16.—Sheriff McClary has 28 deputies on guard at Carnegie's steel rail mill, at Duquesne, in this county, in anticipation of an outbreak to-morrow, when an attempt will be made to resume operations. The 700 employees struck on July 1, because the firm would not sign the scale of wages of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers. The firm has now secured about 150 non-union men, and will try to start up in defiance of the union. The expectation to-night is that there will be violence, as the strikers are determined not to let the new men work.

Afro-American National League.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 14.—The Afro-American National League met here to-day and elected officers for the ensuing year. T. Thomas Fortune, of New York, is the president. An address was prepared to the Afro-Americans, which, among other things, censures the Republican senators who killed the elections bill, denounces as unconstitutional the separate car laws which are in force in several Southern States, sympathizes with the Haytian republic, and condemns lynch law. A dozen states were represented.

Insurgents Again Victorious.

SAN DIEGO, July 15.—Commander Janer, of the Mexican man-of-war Democrata, in this harbor, has received a dispatch from the navy department of the Mexican government to the effect that a naval engagement took place off the Chilian coast two days ago between the insurgent cruiser Magellanes and several government vessels. The engagement resulted in a decisive victory for the insurgents and two government vessels were almost destroyed.

COMMISSIONERS ARRIVE,

AND ARE WAITED ON BY THE SEALERS' ASSOCIATION.

They Will Collect Evidence and Information on the Subject of Sealing, and Although they Believe Losses Will be Reimbursed, Cannot Promise Anything.

In accordance with the resolution passed a few days ago at the joint meeting of the Sealers' Association and the Board of Trade, the following deputation waited on Sir George Baden Powell and Dr. Dawson on board the Danube this morning: Captain Cox, President of the Sealers' Association, R. Hall, Secretary, T. B. Hall, President of the Board of Trade, Captain Dodds, Captain Laing, William Munsie and J. Stephens.

They were very cordially received by the commissioners, to whom they were introduced by Mr. T. B. Hall. He said he would leave the statement of the sealers' case to those who were more nearly interested, and therefore better qualified to speak.

An informal conversation and general interchange of ideas ensued, in which Sir George and Dr. Dawson asked a number of leading questions on the subject of seals and sealing generally.

The sealers submitted that they had not received any official information of the closing of the sea, and consequently had gone on preparing.

Mr. R. Hall.—The only intimation we have received is a proclamation of the President of the United States, which is addressed to American citizens. Now who is Benjamin Harrison to a British citizen? The Canadian vessels will not take any notice of a warning from an American ship on the strength of this proclamation, and the consequence is they will be seized.

Mr. Munsie pointed out that the only weight this document bore was the fact of the British minister's signature being on it.

Mr. Stephenson also dwelt on this point.

Sir George thought the notice in the Canadian Gazette might have guided the customs collector in clearing vessels for Behring Sea; but

Mr. T. B. Hall said he had made it his business to inquire, and he found that no Canadian Gazette is received at the customs office here.

Mr. Munsie.—You must remember, Sir George, that this proclamation has been issued every year now for the last three or four years, and has been disregarded by our vessels. The captain of a Canadian vessel is not going to accept the warning of an American ship to get out of the sea. We could have saved the British government the expense of sending ships up there to clear the sea if we had been told that an agreement had been entered into between the two governments, and if we had been asked to withdraw our vessels, pending the settlement of this question.

Mr. Stephenson.—Yes; we could have sent up word by the Danube; but the only intimation we have had of this agreement is from newspaper paragraphs, which may or may not be all moonshine.

Capt. Dodds said he had been threatened with seizure on the strength of the proclamation simply because it bore the British Minister's signature.

Captain Cox—In 1886, at the time of the fisheries proclamation, the fishermen were given two months' notice, from March till May.

Sir George—My view of these men-of-war going up there, is that they are not going there for the purpose of making seizures, but to tell the schooners there that we were going to stop sealing in their interests.

Mr. R. Hall—We don't mind being warned by British men-of-war, but we fail to see what authority American vessels can have over our schooners in this matter.

Mr. Munsie—When the Maggie Mac got this warning, she was sealing some miles from the sea—would such a warning hold good had she gone into the sea afterwards?

Sir George—I should think that that would be an intimation that the sea had been closed.

In reply to another query as to the powers of the commission, Sir George said they had full powers of enquiry into sealing through the whole course of the North Pacific ocean.

Regarding the slaughtering of pup seals, Captain Dodds said that out of 688 seals he brought down, they had 20 pups.

Dr. Dawson—I don't think myself that there is any fear of the fur seal being exterminated, because I don't think that it is an animal that can be exterminated. The only animal that we have any knowledge of being exterminated is the sea cow, but then its habits differ totally from those of the fur seal, which I don't think can be exterminated any more than the sea otter.

Mr. R. Hall pointed out that the Americans in their proclamation or agreement said nothing about sea otter, although their skins were worth $200 each.

Mr. Munsie—Every seal our men kill they give a chance of its life; it is like shooting a bird on the wing, but the seal company clubs them wholesale in their breeding rookeries.

Captain Dodds pointed out that whalers were this year engaged in sealing also. This gave them a loophole out of the agreement.

Mr. Hall, leading to the question of compensation spoke of the expense that had been gone to in getting hunters from the east. In the event of the season being stopped prematurely these men would be in actual want. He was of opinion that the agreement to kill 7500 seals for the natives on the islands was a bit of jobbery.

Dr. Dawson thought 7500 barrels of flour would have been more to the point.

Sir George promised to take the question of compensation and other matters into consideration and include it in their report. He was of opinion that just compensation would be granted to Canadian sealers for any reasonable loss they sustained owing to the action of the Government. The commissioner, however had no power to promise any thing, their mission was simply to enquire and report.

During the interview which lasted over an hour and a half both Dr. Dawson and Sir George took extensive notes and asked many pointed questions.

Sir George and Dr. Dawson, subsequently to their conference with the sealers, visited Collector Milne, and had a long chat with him, particularly on the sealing question. Mr. Milne showed them that he had no authority to cease clearing vessels for the Behring Sea, and therefore did not do so. Mr. Milne also gave the visitors a good deal of information in reply to questions which they put. A list of schooners clearing from Victoria, their tonnage and equipment was also given them.

They leave to-night on the steamer Danube, but will make a longer stay in Victoria on their return, when they will meet the captains of the various schooners and question them on many points.

THE UNITED WORKMEN.

The Proceedings of To-Day's Session of the Grand Lodge A.O.U.W.

The Grand Lodge A.O.U.W. commenced the second day of their session in Oddfellows' Hall at 10 o'clock this morning, Grand Master Workman J. J. Daley calling the session to order. It was decided to change the grand lodge session from a biennial to an annual one. The grand lodge laws were amended to have all work done in the Workman degree, other than the opening and closing, which is done in the grand lodge degree. This affords all workmen in good standing an opportunity to sit in the grand lodge in business session.

The committee on dissolution, that is, on the separation of the lodges of Washington and British Columbia from the present grand lodge, presented a report. Reference was made to Grand Master Daley, Grand Foreman Cohen, and all the past grand masters present at the session. The report favors the separation, and gives the agreement under which the division would be made. The separation will take effect on and after the 31st of December, 1891, at which time Supreme Grand Master Workman Kinsley will re-organize the Grand Lodge of Washington. It is possible that the lodges of British Columbia will under the act and authority of the supreme lodge, be annexed to the Grand Lodge of Ontario.

This afternoon the election for officers took place, resulting as follows: Grand Master, D. Solis Cohen, Unity 25; Grand Foreman, B. J. Hawthorn Eugene 15; Grand Overseer, J. L. Rand, Baker City 100; Grand Recorder, Newton Clark, Riverside 68; Grand Receiver, R. L. Durham, Hope No. 1; Grand Trustee, Wm. Armstrong, three years. Supreme representatives, J. J. Daley, T. A. Stevens and H. L. Smith. This was all the business done up to 3:30 this afternoon.

A WATER FAMINE IMMINENT.

A cry for water is coming from different parts of the city which were taken in by the recent extension of the city limits. The principle ones to grumble, however, are the residents and property owners in the eastern part of the city, along Oak Bay Avenue and around the Jubilee Hospital. Along the Avenue a large number of houses have been erected this spring, and to judge by the complaints being made it must be becoming a serious matter to the occupants thereof where they are going to get a supply of water. They all have wells, but the continued warm weather of the last few days is drying them up. The main Fort street pipe only runs as far as Hon. D. W. Higgins' residence, a small pipe being used to supply the Jubilee Hospital. This latter pipe is hardly large enough to supply the hospital let alone any residences. The matter will have to be taken up by the council before long, as besides the portion of the city particularly mentioned there are other places that before long will be almost as bad. A large number of people have refrained from building on account of the scarcity of this necessary article.

THE GOVERNMENT LEADER

IN THE BRITISH HOUSE OF COMMONS ABOUT TO RETIRE.

Lord Randolph Churchill's Friends Again to the Fore as Advocates for His Claims to Office—A General Railway Strike in France Anticipated.

LONDON, July 15.—The now certain retirement of Mr. Wm. H. Smith from the Government leadership in the House of Commons and the consequent vacancy in the cabinet have again brought the friends of Lord Randolph Churchill to the fore as advocates for his claims to office. Since Lord Randolph's voluntary retirement from office in a fit of pique he has been brought forward as a candidate to fill each successive vacancy that has occurred in the cabinet, invariably with the same result. Whether Lord Randolph would resume office under Lord Salisbury even his closest friends are not prepared to say definitely, but it is unquestionably a fact that he is about the last person in England to whom a cabinet position would be offered as the preference of a majority or even a respectable minority of the present ministry. Nevertheless, his name is being industriously mentioned by his henchmen as the most desirable man who could be selected to administer the affairs of a government department. It is only just to him to say, however, that many of his admirers believe that the presentment of his claims is wholly unauthorized by him and would meet with his prompt condemnation were he aware of it.

RAILWAY STRIKE IN FRANCE PENDING.

In anticipation of the general railway strike, which was decided upon at a large meeting of the railway employees in Paris last night, the managers of the railways affected have for some days past been devoting their attention to engaging the services of every available man to be found along their respective lines to fill the places which may be vacant. In an interview last evening one of the railway officials informed the correspondent of the United Press that having ascertained approximately the number of men who would quit work by the call to strike, he was prepared to say that the company could fill every place left vacant by a striker within three hours. On the other hand the leaders of the disaffected men, aware of the steps the officials have taken to fill their places, declare that the companies have not been able to engage more than one-third of the number of men that will be required to fill the vacant places, and that of these fully one-half will be unable to fill the strikers' places.

THE ARABIAN INSURGENTS.

A dispatch from Constantinople says the Porte is in receipt of information that the insurrection in Yemen is spreading to tribes which have hitherto been regarded by the Turkish government as not likely to be affected by the uprising of the Assyrs. This indicates that the 200 troops dispatched to the scene of the disturbance about three weeks ago have been found wholly inadequate to cope with the rebels, as it was predicted by several Turkish officers that they would be. It is now stated that the force which it was originally intended to send to quell the rebellion (10,000 men), will be dispatched at once. The insurgents are well armed and admirably officered, and the ministers of the Sultan are advised by officers familiar with the disturbed region and its inhabitants that prompt and vigorous repressive measure are necessary so prevent a general uprising of the fanatical people, which could only be put down at great cost of money and blood.

OUTRAGES IN IRELAND.

Outrages upon the boycotted tenants in Ander, Tipperary, who refused to join the plan of campaign and defied its promoters, still continue, in spite of the efforts of the constables to suppress them and apprehend the miscreants, whose acts are invariably committed under the cover of darkness. On Tuesday night the house of Patrick Brady, an evicted tenant who returned to his holding last winter, was attacked with stones, which smashed every window in the building, and later in the night an unsuccessful attempt was made to set the building on fire, the house being occupied by Brady, his wife, his mother and four children. On the same night the house of a farmer named Sweeney was attacked, but the assailants were repulsed by the copious use of hot water thrown upon them from the upper windows. One of the marauders was recognized, and the police are in pursuit of him.

The witness said he met Murphy on the street, and, being asked to go back with him to the Russell, said he couldn't go, as being pressed for money, he was on his way to borrow some from a party who had obliged him before. Murphy said: "You need not go, I will lend you this," and thereupon handed him $100. Witness said to Murphy: "When you want this back, if you draw on me, it will be paid." He had never drawn.

BEAUTY AND THE BEAST.

Abingdon Baird, Mrs. Langtry's New Paramour, Has to Pay $125,000.

LONDON, July 15.—Several stories are afloat with regard to Abingdon Baird's alleged assault on Mrs. Langtry, but the following is told by one who saw Mrs. Langtry just after the assault had been committed and while the blood was still streaming down her face. Some time ago Mr Baird bought York house, at Regent Park, for Mrs. Langtry and also paid off her debts in connection with the Princess theater, of which he is at present the lease holder. On a recent occasion Mr. Baird returned home unexpectedly and found a gentleman dining with Mrs. Langtry. Without more ado he proceeded to put him out and then went for the lady and knocked her down. Then, it is stated, he kicked her in the face in such a way that it is said she will now be disfigured. Mrs. Langtry had to be carried to bed and was attended by a surgeon, who declared it probable that she will never be able to act again. Mrs. Langtry began action for an assault against Mr. Baird, but he repented of his deed and to prevent further action paid her the sum of £25,000 in Bank of England notes.

THE WORLD'S NEWS.

International Congregational Congress—Corners on Grain Not Allowed in Russia.

In the British Commons, Bidwell, in the case of Bidwell, the American forger, Home Secretary Matthews replied that he had repeatedly carefully considered memorials in favor of Bidwell, but his sense of public duty forbade him advocating that the Queen release the prisoner.

At the International Congregational Congress in London, Rev. Mr. Gorce, of Chicago, preached, contending that the pilgrim fathers and the Congregational leaders were as truly called of God as were the apostles. The general line of his argument was against the new theology and in favor of the orthodox views in regard to the Bible.

The trial of Duncan for murderous assault on his wife in Wales took place to-day. Duncan was acquitted on the ground of insanity, and the court ordered him detained in custody. [Duncan, who is an American, was arrested while beating his wife's head with a stone in a secluded field.]

The Governor of Nijni-Novgorod, Russia, has warned the committee of the exchange that speculators forming corners to raise the price of grain, or otherwise adding to the growing necessities of the people, will be punished and expelled from his jurisdiction.

THE CHILIAN TYRANT.

Citizens Shot Down in Cold Blood, in Defiance of the Highest Court.

WASHINGTON, July 15. — Antonia Veras, one of the Chilian insurgent representatives, now here, has a very rapid communication in to-day's Post, in answer to the Evening Star's Santiago correspondent. It says in part: "The article in the Star in defence of Balmaceda skilfully conceals real facts and adroitly emphasizes every possible point in Balmaceda's behalf, with the evident intention of misleading the public mind. There are indications that the letters have been doctored in this country. When the correspondent disculpates the crime of Balmaceda for shooting in the public square of a group of soldiers as deserters, she is careful not to mention what was so notoriously true, that these unfortunate men had been dragged from their homes and firesides and forced against their will to bear arms in aid of the tyrant. Carried by brute force to the ships, they were there penned up like cattle in the belief that they would at last become tractable enough to serve the dictator's ambitious ends. Inspired by the loftiest sentiment of patriotism, they naturally embraced the first opportunity to escape.

"They were captured and appealed to the courts. A decision was rendered, and by decree of the highest tribunal in Chili it was declared that these men were under no obligation to serve in the army. Disregarding the decree of the court, Balmaceda interposed his bloody hand and men who represented the foremost families of republican wealth, station and intelligence were brutally shot down, absolutely murdered in the public square. This is the deed which the writer of the letter endeavors to justify and excuse. In wilful mendacity she avoids the truth and seeks to palliate a crime which will forever be a stain upon the closing years of the nineteenth century.

"These martyrs to freedom on whom Balmaceda glutted his revenge, will live in the hearts of all true men while the tyrant and his supporters will be handed down to posterity as curses to humanity. The Post will be solicited to publish the various letters from a Chilian daughter to her father giving a truthful and confidential statement of what she had witnessed. It would be very unsafe for the young lady if anyone friendly to the dictator came into possession of the name, for it would be wired through to Balmaceda and the poor girl and her family would suffer the consequences. The vengeance of the tyrant would be fearful."

Why It is Popular.

Because it has proven its absolute merit over and over again, because it has an unequalled record of cures, because its business is conducted in a thoroughly honest manner, and because it combines economy and strength, being the only medicine of which "100 Doses One Dollar" is true—these strong points have made Hood's Sarsaparilla the most successful medicine of the day.

The Grand Trunk System.

The Grand Trunk system differs from the human system, in that the same troubles do not affect it and the same remedies are not needed. For all diseases of the human system there is no tonic purifier, renovator and strengthener as good as Burdock Blood Bitters. A weak system can be built up by B.B.B.

Indignation Against Officials.

SAN DIEGO, July 16.—Popular feeling continues to run high against officials who took part in the tragedy Tuesday, in which one of the Charleston's sailors was killed and four others seriously wounded. Three officers are under arrest and others are to be taken in custody.

Kootenais in Revolt.

SPOKANE, July 14.—A Cœur d'Alene City letter, received at the land office to-day, says there is a threatened outbreak of Kootenai Indians, white settlers having been driven from their homes. Military aid has been called for. The matter was referred to Gen. Carlin at Fort Sherman.

A Boy Burglar Shot.

CINCINNATI, July 14.—Tom Finn, aged 18, leader of a gang of juvenile burglars, was shot and mortally wounded by a policeman this morning. The officer had been looking for him, and when he halted Finn the latter fired several shots at him without effect. The policeman returned the fire, bringing down Finn.

Presidential Possibilities.

CHICAGO, July 15.—The Daily News will say to-morrow: "There is a well-formulated plan here to present the name of Chief Justice Fuller for the presidency." The News article argues that Hill and Gray may destroy Cleveland, but, if so, the choice will fall to a man other than either the New York or Indiana executives.

Large Mill Burned in Oakland.

OAKLAND, Cal., July 15.—The city was awakened this morning about four o'clock by a lively ringing of the fire alarm bells, on account of another fire in the planing mills district. The Pacific Coast Planing mills, of which Alpheus Kendall is the principal proprietor, caught fire in some unexplained manner, and are almost a total loss. The entire portion of the mill in which the machinery was situated was burned down. Another part of the mill, in which $4000 worth of lumber, not insured, was stored, was saved.

Fire in Tenino.

TENINO, Wash., July 16.—A fire broke out in the upper part of the store of Allison & Allinghers, general merchandise. The fire spread to Gilmore's barber shop on one side and Geo. Sumptions boot and shoe store on the other, then to Gilmore's confectionary and ice cream parlor, then to Johnson's business building which was vacant. Thompson's meat market was pulled down to stop the fire spreading to other buildings, which had the desired effect. The loss is estimated at $3000, fully insured, except one building valued at $200. The loss on goods and stock is small, as the contents of the buildings were carried out into the streets and saved. The fire is supposed to be the work of incendiaries, as there has not been any fire in any shape in the building for weeks.

What Your Great-Grandmother Did.

She hetcheled the flax and carded the wool, and wove the linen, and spun the tow, and made the clothes for her husband and ten children. She made butter and cheese, she dipped tallow candles to light the house at night, and she cooked all the food for her household by an open fireplace and a brick oven. Yes; and when she was forty years of age, she was already an old lady whose best days were over. Her shoulders were bent and her joints enlarged by hard work, and she wore spectacles and a cap. Her great-granddaughter, with all the modern conveniences for comfort, refinement and luxury, may be as charming and attractive at forty-five as at twenty. Especially is this true if she preserves her health and beauty by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which wards off all female ailments and irregularities, cures them if they already exist, keeps the life current healthful and vigorous, and enables the woman of middle age to retain the freshness of girlhood upon brow and cheek, the light of youth in her eyes, and its elasticity in her step. THE CARIBOO RAILWAY.

H. P. Bell's Report—Which is the Best and Cheapest Route.

Difference of opinion has arisen as to which is the best route for the Cariboo Railway. Some allege that the North Thompson river route is the best, with Kamloops as its southern terminus. Others claim that the route by the Bonaparte is to be preferred, not solely because it is the cheapest, but because a large agricultural and mineral section would thereby be made easily accessible. As a contribution to the literature of the question the TIMES gives the following summary of the report of Mr. H. P. Bell, C.E., who surveyed the different routes. Says the report:—

This line (the Bonaparte) is laid down with its southern terminus at Port Van Horne, in preference to Ashcroft. A line terminating at the latter point would be subject to the disability of four miles of grade at the rate of about 129 feet per mile; probably two tunnels, of about 1000 feet each in length, with numerous quick curves, resulting in about six miles of heavy work with a low standard of economical traffic capacity.

It is, however, possible that a junction might be made with the Canadian Pacific Railway at some point between Savana's Ferry and Ashcroft, without the employment of any heavy grades. If this were found possible by instrumental survey, it would shorten the length of the Bonaparte route by the distance saved between Port Van Horne and the point so selected as the southern terminus of the Cariboo Railway.

The difference of cost between a line from Cache Creek to Ashcroft, and one from Cache Creek to the south terminal point wherever situated, is not worthy of consideration when the difference of economical traffic capacity is taken into capital account.

Mr. Bell then goes on to describe the general lay of the country from the 124th mile post north, quoting the report of Marcus Smith:—

The last point (124th mile post) is 1332 feet above sea level, and thence 24 miles up the valley the grades are tolerably uniform, at the rate of 31 feet per mile, the only variations being one of 73 feet per mile for two and a half miles, and a few short lengths of 53 feet per mile.

The works throughout this length will be light, for although the slopes of the valleys are rock, with a thin covering of soil, the line can be kept close to the bottom flats, avoiding any deep cutting.

Thence for three miles and a quarter, to the head waters of the Bonaparte, the rise is at the rate of two feet per 100, through a narrow valley, with much loose rock on its slopes; in this the work will be rather heavy.

The country between the plateau of the Bonaparte at the 36th mile and the 112nd mile is of the same general character. It may be summarized by calling it an undulating plateau offering much choice of ground, requiring a thorough survey, but quite capable of affording in return therefor a line of economical traffic capacity, without heavy works. The only crossing of any magnitude in the whole of this distance is that of the Bridge creek near 100th mile.

Summarizing Mr. Bell continues:—

It may be said of the whole distance, from the south terminal point to Barkerville, by way of the Bonaparte route, that even including two truss bridges, one over the Thompson and another over the Quesnelle river, the bridging will be found a very insignificant percentage of the total cost.

There is timber enough for constructive purposes, to be found at reasonable distances apart, all the way from the Bonaparte summit to Barkerville.

For the section immediately south, the bridges might be built from the end of the track, as they were upon Mr. Onderdonk's contracts in British Columbia.

The total distance from Port Van Horne to Barkerville, with an allowance of 10 per cent. added to cover local curvature, will be 288 miles.

Having described the line by way of the Bonaparte valley to Barkerville, the next point in order of enumeration, according to instructions, will be the lines by way of the North Thompson river.

The plan shows two lines, one rising by the valley of St. Joseph's creek to the central plateau, 100 miles in length, from Kamloops to its junction with the Bonaparte route; the other by way of the Clearwater river and Bridge creek, 135 miles in length, from Kamloops to its junction with the Bonaparte route. The mileages of the Bonaparte route, measured from Van Horne to the intersection with these two lines, will be respectively 93 and 105 miles.

	Miles.
From Port Van Horne to a common point opposite Bridge Creek House, by the Bonaparte river route	1.5
From Kamloops to the same point via St. Joseph's creek	113
From Kamloops to the same point, via the Clearwater river	135

These are the plan distances, without any percentage for local curvature as hereafter added on.

All these lines are included in Mr. Sandford Fleming's reports on the surveys of the Canadian Pacific Railway made to the Dominion Government.

As the North Thompson river section, from Kamloops to the 75th mile, is applicable to both lines, I will describe that portion by stating that the North Thompson river as a route for a line of railway, is per se a noble river for constructive purposes, capable of a high standard of economical traffic capacity, with works lighter than medium; but the very rapid falls, the rough rocky, narrow and circuitous character of its western tributaries, involve costly works, long maximum grades, quick curves, and a low standard of economical capacity. In order to utilize the North Thompson river as an approach to the central plateau.

Recapitulating the lengths of the three routes, they will stand as follows, including 10 per cent. allowance of distance to cover local curvature:

	Miles.
From Kamloops to Barkerville, via North Thompson river and St. Joseph's creek	300
From Kamloops to Barkerville, via North Thompson and Clearwater rivers	344
From Port Van Horne to Barkerville, via the Bonaparte river	288

Calling now the route by way of the North Thompson river and St. Joseph's creek No. 1; that by way of the North Thompson and Clearwater No. 2; and that by way of the Bonaparte No. 3; and affixing their respective mileages as before, I estimate their respective cost complete as follows:

Route No. 1—300 miles—Nine million dollars.
Route No. 2—344 miles—Ten and one half million dollars.
Route No. 3—288 miles—Seven and one half million dollars.

International Educational Convention.

TORONTO, July 15.—The national council of education resumed its session this morning with a large attendance, despite the wet weather. About 3000 teachers arrived this morning to attend the annual convention of the National Educational Association. The National Educational Association of the United States was formally convened this afternoon in the presence of about 6000 people. In his address of welcome, Principal Grant expressed the wish that the Americans and Canadians were able to trade more freely together. The national convention closed the proceedings by electing the following officers: President, S. H. Baker, of Denver, Col.; vice-president, M. E. N. Coy, of Cincinnati; secretary and treasurer, N. C. Schaffer, of Kutztown, Pa. Helena, Montana, and Seattle are leaders in the struggle for the next convention. At the evening session an organization was affected and committees appointed. A paper by Francis W. Parker, of Chicago, on "The School of the Future," was read, and discussion followed by Superintendent Marble, of Worcester, Mass., Inspector Hughes, of Toronto, and others. Some 15,000 delegates and visitors are in the city from all parts of the United States and Canada, and the convention is one of the largest ever held. There are a number of department branches of the associations which will hold meetings, beginning tomorrow.

THE CRY OF MILLIONS
OH, MY BACK!
STOP IT NOW.
SOON IT WILL BE TOO LATE.
I have been troubled many years with disease of the kidneys and have tried many different remedies and have sought aid from different physicians without relief. About the 19th of April I was suffering from a very violent attack that almost prostrated me in such a manner that I was bed ridden. When I sat down it was almost impossible for me to get up alone, or to put on my clothes, when Mr. Providence sent Dr. Henley, with the LEMON KIDNEY TEA, to my hotel. I immediately commenced using the tea. It had an almost miraculous effect, and to the astonishment of all the guests at the hotel, in a few days I am happy to state, that I was a new man. I will recommend the tea to all afflicted as I have been.

MURPHY AND LANGEVIN.

The Colonist seems to be troubled equally by the charges advanced by Mr. TARTE against LANGEVIN and McGREEVY and by the attack made by a certain Mr. HAMILTON on the "glorious climate." As if to prove that the air of the Pacific Coast does not exert the enervating influence with which Mr. HAMILTON credits it, our neighbor does some remarkable intellectual "hustling" on behalf of the accused parties at Ottawa. It would be well for the Colonist, for its friends at the capital and for the country generally if the reputations of the Minister of Public Works and the member for Quebec West could take care of themselves as effectually as can that of the aforesaid climate. We have apparently angered the Colonist by suggesting that for the acquittal of its friends something more is necessary than the discrediting of OWEN E. MURPHY. It even goes the length of saying that we sympathise with MURPHY and are finding fault with the exposure of his career. We have taken no such course; what we have found fault with is the premature jubilation of the Ministerialists, who seemed to regard this exposure as the end of the whole matter. It will not do to say that MURPHY's evidance is to be rejected in every particular simply because under cross-examination he confessed to a bad career before he became a member of the Connolly firm. Is it not natural to infer, unless the contrary is shown, that there is some foundation for his confession of continued "crookedness" as a member of the firm, and that, as stated, he found himself in congenial company when he was dealing with the Ottawa people?

As already pointed out, MURPHY's testimony is not unsupported, though the Colonist would have us believe so. The letters of the partners, and the memoranda of Mr. PERLEY by themselves show that the Connolly firm was favored at the expense of the country, and the Perley-Murphy affair furnishes further proof that there was wrong done. Were these contractors given the many advantages shown by the correspondence without a quid pro quo? The whole history of the case, and the evidence so far taken, are against the assumption. We do not rejoice in the scandal; it is unpleasant to deal with, as are the other scandals cropping up at Ottawa; but we may be forgiven if we are not so ready as the Ministerial organs to shout "acquitted" at the present stage of the trial.

CANADIAN INTERESTS.

That the Eastern agriculturist is experiencing a decline in prices, and that land values are steadily depreciating cannot be doubted. The Globe has said so, the Gazette does not dispute it, and now comes along the Mail urging these things as a reason for the remission of the duty on binding twine. The farmers are hard put, says the Mail in effect, and no measure should be omitted which would contribute to tide them over the crisis that seems to be inevitable. But the Mail does not attribute poor markets and depreciated land values to the Government's fiscal policy wholly. Poor markets may be the result of over production, and land values may fall for reasons wholly outside the domain of politics. The depreciation of land values, thinks the Mail, may be ascribed to the same causes that have depopulated New England hill towns, namely, migration westward. This reason scarcely suffices to explain the Canadian exodus. The parallel is imperfect in that the New Englander went west in quest of fertile soil, whereas the Canadian emigrant abandoned the home of his fathers in search of a market. The New Englander had a market, but he tired of cultivating sterile fields. The Canadian had fertile soil, but he tired of wasting his energy to no purpose. These were the main causes which drove the Canadian and the New Englander west, and they are borne out in the fact, so far as the Canadian is concerned, that previous to 1866, the migration from Canada to the United States was nominal. Canadians were quite content to remain at home while reciprocity was in operation. But if this explanation of the exodus does not suffice, we will strengthen it by asking a question. Where are the million of Canadians who have migrated from Canada since 1866? They are not in the Northwest, they are not in British Columbia. Since these Canadians are not to be found in the whole Dominion of Canada, we must attribute the exodus, not to the quest for land, as was the case with the New Englanders, but to a desire to locate themselves where their energies brought them the most profit. We therefore hold the Government's fiscal policy directly responsible for the loss of a million of citizens and the failure to settle the Northwest.

The natives of the British Isles will not live where the conditions are unfavorable to thrift, nor will they endure a situation where profits are incommensurate with the energy bestowed. Under the N. P. these conditions were impossible. The home market was too small, while on the border a cruel tariff cut dow the profits of energy. It was natural, therefore, that Canadians should betake themselves to the States, and especially since land was there to be had as cheaply as in the Northwest with the additional advantage of a market which, not until the last year or two has failed of affording remunerative prices.

But in relation to the status quo, which discounts Canadian energy, it is urged that reciprocity is to discriminate against the Mother Country. In this connection we cannot help quoting Mr. CHARLTON. Said Mr. CHARLTON:

"Our hon. friends have a great deal to say about discriminating against England. Now, whose interests are we in charge of here? Are we in charge of the interests of England or of the interests of Canada? Are we to guard against discriminating against England's interests exclusively, or have we something to say about Canadian interests? If this country is languishing for access to certain trade markets, and if these markets can be obtained, and if we refuse them through some sentimental feeling with regard to a country over which we have no control, are we not discriminating against our own interests? England will take care of herself. It is not essential to England's prosperity that we should adopt a policy that will impoverish us. It will be ultimately to the benefit of England if we adopt a policy that will benefit ourselves."

This is the language of Mr. CHARLTON, and we should say of it, that not only is it worth pondering over but worth acting upon. Unless Canada is prepared to adopt the policy of self-interest a state of things will soon be reached similar to that which induced Mr. ABBOTT to sign the annexation manifesto of 1849.

OTTAWA VS. WASHINGTON.

Last winter the good people of Canada gazed on the congressional bear garden at Washington with uplifted hands. The time has now come when they may go through a like pantomine in respect of doings at Ottawa. Messrs. TARTE and CURRAN have not had a fight to the finish, but their little passage at arms indicates that if only feeling runs high enough, men will fight at Ottawa as quickly as at Washington. But after all this is nothing. Fighting parsons are not unknown in British and American history; there have been knock downs in churches even and we doubt whether anybody was the worse for it. Combativeness never yet hurt a man in the estimation of the people. When people cease to be combative they will have lost the quality of progressiveness. But what we note about the TARTE CURRAN affair is, that our Tory friends seem to regard Mr. TARTE as a latter day BENEDICT ARNOLD, a traitor to the grand old party, to the cause and to "Uncle THOMAS" & Co. If this be true the Tories in the House have fallen into bad ways. It does not speak well for their political morality if it be that they are impatient of Mr. TARTE and would kick him at every opportunity. And we are afraid that it is actually the case that Tory members have no use for Mr. TARTE. The Tory press certainly has not, while, as for MURPHY, it is ready to rend him in pieces. So far, in reporting the trial now in progress, the Tory press has published only garbled reports. That MURPHY fainted under cross-examination and that he has been unable to give satisfactory replies to every question has been industriously circulated but never a word have Tory organs had to say with reference to CONNOLLY's short memory. The time, evidently, has come for the Tories to go. Their regard for honesty is not great.

CANNED SALMON.

The recent salmon poisoning case, which is attracting attention in England, should attract attention here. The Fraser river and the Columbia river are not far apart, and the prejudice against the latter as to its unfitness for human food might easily extend to the former. In the case in question, in which out of several members in a family made sick by eating Columbia river salmon, one died, the analyst was unable to specify the character of the poison that proved fatal. It might have been, he said, owing to the presence of ptomaine, a poison resulting from the decomposition of animal matter. Very likely this was the case. It is quite reasonable to suppose that out of some millions of cans prepared for market there should be at least one which either in the first place was filled with impure material or which subsequently deteriorated, owing to defective covering. Two classes of cases in spection, therefore, are necessary. First, it should be seen that only sound salmon are canned, and, secondly, that the cans are absolutely air tight. And even then it may be presumed that there should be spoiled cans. From the cannery to the ship, thence around the Horn, thence to the warehouse, and finally to the retail establishment and the family, is a long distance, and that a can should be perforated to the extent of admitting enough air to spoil the contents is not only reasonable but highly probable. The canner can have no object in putting up a bad article. It would ruin him. But he cannot prevent injury to his product in the subsequent handlings which follow before it reaches the consumer. The consumer of canned salmon, remembering this, should, therefore, take the pains to inspect what he is eating. If there is anything wrong with the fish he ought to be able to detect it by either the sense of smell or the sense of taste.

According to an official statement, it costs half a cent per ton per mile to carry coal over the Intercolonial Railway, while the rate actually charged amounts to only three-tenths of a cent. This is done to oblige the Nova Scotia mine-owners, enabling them to send their coal as far as Montreal to compete successfully with the bituminous coal from the States. In other words, the Nova Scotia men receive a bonus of one-fifth of a cent per ton for each mile of road over which their coal is carried, amounting to about $1.25 per ton for the whole distance from the mines to Point Levis. This fact is not a pleasant one for the taxpayers of the country to consider, but it must be said that it fits nicely into the whole history of the Intercolonial, which has proved to be an exceedingly expensive way of "binding the provinces together." The road has been wrongly dealt with from the commencement, when the longest route was selected on political and military grounds. By reason of this and other blunders the traffic receipts annually fall short of the expenditure, the deficit in 1889-90 being $553,392. Up to the end of that year the road and its equipment had cost the country $46,908,333, the interest on which, added to the annual shortage, makes a substantial burden for the backs of the taxpayers. This burden is not made more pleasant by the thought that part of it is caused by such a large concession to the coal-producers, to whom, of course, it is granted by way of compensation for the disabilities which the restrictionist policy lays on them.

For the North.

The steamer Princess Louise will sail for the north as soon after the arrival of the steamer City of Puebla from San Francisco as possible. She has a lot of freight to take on from the Puebla which, with what she has on board already, will fill her up pretty well. The cargo consists principally of cannery supplies.

Ba-Ros' Picnic.

The A. O. U. W. will hold a basket picnic at Oak Bay on Saturday afternoon. They will go out in the street cars with their families to enjoy themselves at that now favorite picnic ground. Everybody is invited to attend and help the local lodge entertain the visitors, many of whom will remain over Saturday.

Must Go to China.

Attorney-General Miller has given an opinion to the secretary of the treasury that the Chinese restriction laws require that Chinese convicted of illegal entry into the United States shall be returned to China, regardless of the fact that they may have actually entered the United States from contiguous territory, such as Canada or Mexico.

Victoria Their Choice.

A general excursion of the Knights Templars of Whatcom is being organized to visit Victoria on August 8. It is expected that the steamer Yosemite will be chosen for the occasion. In any case the intending excursionists look forward to a thoroughly good time and they say they won't be disappointed if they make Victoria their choice.

Simple but Effective.

The proprietoress of the New York restaurant on Yates street is employing a simple but effective way of getting rid of the troublesome flies. A small dish of sulphur and burning charcoal is placed in the window which is tightly closed. It takes but a few minutes for this simple method to kill thousands of flies. In a very short time the floor of the window was covered with dead flies.

A Mariner's Conversion.

A well-known marine man, who at the time of the general election was one of the warmest supporters of the Conservative party, has materially changed since that time. His principal cause of complaint is the manner in which he and all mariners have been treated as regards the harbor. That $6000 appropriation crosses his mind almost hourly and he then commences to kick himself. He takes every opportunity to condemn that "rotten" government as he calls it.

Borne to the Grave.

The funeral of the late Charles Barley, who was killed in Jewell's building on Tuesday morning, took place this afternoon from Lockhart & Co.'s undertaking parlors. Rev. P. McLeod, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, officiated at the parlors and at the cemetery. George Bartley of Vancouver, son of the deceased, arrived in the city to attend to the last sad rites over his father. The pallbearers were, Jno. Timble, Jno. Lewtis, Angus McDonald and Jno. Warmsley. All the men working on the Jewell block attended the funeral.

Excursion to Cape Flattery.

The fine steamer Olympian will make an excursion to Cape Flattery on Saturday July 18th, leaving the wharf at the foot of Yates street at 1:30 p.m. and returning by moonlight. Fare for the round trip will be $1. A full band will furnish music. July 13-5t

Officers Installed.

D.D.C.R. Oliver Cruse, assisted by a number of the Seattle brethren, installed the newly elected officers of Court Cariboo, No. 743, I.O.F., in St. George's Hall last evening. They are as follows: N. Shakespeare, C.D.H.C.R.; A. A. Davidson, S. P. C. R.; Geo. A. Grant, J. P. C. R.; Wm. Culhn, C. R.; Buell Rombough, V.C.R.; F. Shakespeare, R.S.; J.R. Kerr, F.S.; Jas. Blackwood, Treas.; A. C. McDonald, S. W.; J. H. Stocks, J.W.; J. Etcher, S. B.; J. Crawford, J.B.; A. L. Campbell, Chaplain; E. A. Hall, Physician.

A Close Call.

One of the carpenters employed on Russell's new block on Government street had a very narrow escape from a serious accident this afternoon. He was working on the roof, when stepping too close to the edge, some boards tilted and he fell. Quickly grasping a scaffolding about half way between the roof and ground, he succeeded in preventing himself from falling further until caught by one of his comrades. He received a scalp wound which, fortunately, was not serious.

To Be Deported.

The two young Chinese arrested last week for illegally going into the United States, via Victoria and the sloop Cora, were before United States Commissioner Emery yesterday at Seattle. The youngsters answer to the names of Ah Gam and Ah You. Police Officer Thom and Customs Inspector Holden related how the boys had been captured in North Seattle while trying to explain in their bland Chinese way that they wanted to go to Chinatown. They were taken to the City prison and afterwards turned over to the United States authorities. Commissioner Emery ordered that the young pagans be deported to China, and that Ah Toy, who acted as chaperon for the boys, be sent back to Victoria.

Where it Goes to.

"What becomes of all the sugar that has recently been arriving from Vancouver," is a question frequently asked during the last couple of days. It is easily answered, as nearly two-thirds of it returns from whence it came. The Rithet, which left for Westminster yesterday morning, took up a considerable quantity for Fraser River and inland points and another small lot is awaiting her next trip for shipment to Chilliwhack and other places. Some also returned right past the place where it is refined, on its way up the C.P.R. The R. P. Rithet Company Ltd., this morning, transferred a lot from one wharf to the other and marked it for Enderby and other Mainland cities.

A Merry Surprise Party.

Last evening a jolly party of Englishmen assembled at "The Willows," Cadboro Bay road, to meet an old friend, Mr. Elliott, who is about to retire from business. The object of the meeting was to give him a little surprise, and so all his boon companions were there in force.

George Fairbrother was unanimously voted to the chair and made a few well chosen remarks touching upon several incidents that had taken place during Mr. Elliott's long and successful sojourn in the country. A good musical programme followed, Mr. Cox leading with a pianoforte selection. Some capital songs were rendered, among which were conspicuously, the inimitable Marion, with "Tankard of Beer" and "Cherry Ripe;" Bob English then sang "Woodman, Spare that Tree;" Bob Ritter sang "Hand over the Hash" and "Tommy Dodd;" Mr. Fairbrother regaled the company with "The Good Young Man who Died" and "Polly Perkins;" Mr. Nathan sang with effect "Sweethearts and Wives;" Mr. King gave a good solo on the saxaphone with much expression; Squire Hilton came out well in "A Starry Night for a Ramble;" Billy Harrison, although late in the evening, sang "The Merry Wives of Windsor" to big advantage; Ned Woods gave "When my Father was Mayor of Folkstone;" Walter Nathan sang "Look at the Price of Tobacco." During the evening light refreshments were served and the merriest of parties dispersed at a reasonable hour singing "God Save the Queen."

NEW FINANCIAL COMPANY.

The British Columbia Deposit and Loan Company—A Valuable Acquisition.

The B.C. Deposit and Loan Company, limited, the organization of which was mentioned in these columns some weeks ago, is now getting ready for business. As was announced, Mr. J. Keith Wilson was appointed manager and at the last meeting of the company the following directors were elected: Sir Joseph Trutch, K. C. M. G., chairman; E. C. Baker, C. T. Dupont, Thos. Earle, T. B. Hall, Wm. Wilson and Henry Young, all of Victoria. The offices of the company will be situated, for the present, in the Turner Block, Douglas street, temporary quarters having been secured with A. W. More & Co.; but a new building will be erected on Yates street. The solicitors are Drake, Jackson & Helmcken, and the bankers, the Bank of British Columbia.

The prospectus appears in our advertising columns. It will be observed that the objects of the company are to invest and lend money on the security of real estate and other property, to acquire, hold and sell such property; to build on, drain, let, farm, and develop lands of the company to conduct and carry on a general financial business; to receive money on deposit; to borrow money at interest, etc., etc. The subscribed stock of the company is $500,000, and the stockholders include the names of our leading business men. The company has been especially fortunate in securing Mr. J. Keith Wilson as a manager. Mr. Wilson has had a banking experience of twenty-five years, having been a trusted official of the Bank of British Columbia for the last nineteen years. During his connection with that institution he has resided in San Francisco, Victoria, Kamloops and latterly at Seattle, where he was manager of the branch of the Bank of British Columbia. Such a long and varied experience has necessarily made him thoroughly conversant with the financial affairs of the coast and especially with real estate values, etc. The addition of this financial company to our present banking and loaning institutions will tend to the still greater development of the resources of this city and province, and we predict for it a very successful career.

LEGAL INTELLIGENCE.

THE FULL COURT.

Seeley vs. Morse.—This was before the Full Court yesterday, an appeal from a decision of the Chief Justice. The circumstances of the case have already been published. The Full Court decided that the property under dispute should be divided between the brother and sister in accordance with the deed of trust which had been executed.

SPEEDY TRIALS COURT.

(Before Mr. Justice Drake.)

The usual solemnity which characterizes the proceedings of this court was somewhat relieved this morning in the case of Frank David, charged with sheep stealing under circumstances already reported. The chief witness was an Indian child of about 11 years. He became terrified at both judge and lawyers, and his terror caused no little amusement. The lawyers thought he was afraid of the judge and the judge thought the lawyers were the innocent cause of the child's fright. Between the two the child's eyes became so full of tears, and his breast so full of sobs that nothing in the shape of evidence could be gotten from him. He was afraid of everyone, and consequently the prisoner was dismissed.

The man Elbrim, who was charged with stealing a quantity of clothing from the Driard House, was convicted and sentenced to twelve months in the penitentiary.

MIRA, THE WONDERFUL.

Something About Her and Other Changeable Stars.

In the Gospel according to St. Matthew we are told that the birth of Jesus at Bethlehem was heralded by the appearance of a strange star in the sky. Certain wise men of the East seem first to have noticed the star, and, being impressed with the belief that it was a Divine omen, they hurried to Jerusalem to make inquiry of the reigning King. It is further related that, when the wise men journeyed on toward Bethlehem, from Jerusalem, "the star which they saw in the East went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was."

This mysterious stellar appearance has been a fruitful subject of discussion between the faithful believers in the Scriptures on one hand and the material believers in astronomical facts on the other hand, says a writer in the Philadelphia Times. Astronomers are forced to admit, however, that strange stars have appeared in the heavens and then disappeared again as mysteriously as they came. Other stars, well known to astronomers, have regular periods of showing themselves to the naked eye, though they generally remain visible through the telescope as very faint stars after the unaided eye fails to see them.

There are hundreds of these so-called variable stars. One of the most remarkable was first noticed about three hundred years ago. It is Mira, the Wonderful, and is in the constellation Cetus. It appears at intervals of a little less than a year. When at its greatest brightness it resembles a star of the second magnitude. It thus continues about two weeks, then its brilliancy gradually decreases for about three months, when it becomes entirely invisible. After a disappearance of about five months it again faintly appears, and begins to brighten again.

Perhaps the most wonderful of all the strange stars, of which we have accurate knowledge, was that of 1572. It suddenly appeared as the brightest star in the firmament, outshining even Jupiter and Venus, and for a time was visible at midday. This amazing visitant remained seventeen months. Its color was successively white, yellow, red and white again, and its position in the heavens was unchanged during the time it remained visible. This star was supposed by some astronomers to have regular periods of appearing, at intervals of about three hundred years, but the supposition has not been generally accepted.

What causes these seeming eccentricities of stars? The vast multitude of stars well known to astronomers are as stable in their positions and as unchangeable in their appearances as are the distant planets of the solar system. Are we to infer, then, that the variable or temporary stars are wayward members of the stellar family—black sheep in a well-behaved flock? Several hypothoses have been advanced to account for the strange freaks, but none thus far seems entirely satisfactory.

CONCERNING EYES.

What They Are Supposed to Indicate as to Character and Ability.

Long, almond-shaped eyes, with thick-skinned eyelids that cover half the pupil, are indicative of genius when they are found in conjunction with a brow which is full over the eyebrows and which has one deep, perpendicular line between the eyebrows. I have frequently noticed this combination, says a writer in the Boston Post, in the faces of distinguished literary men and artists. The almond-shaped eye, however, even without this peculiar form of forehead, always means a susceptible, impressionable nature. Eyes which are large, open and very transparent, and which sparkle with a rapid motion under well-defined eyelids, denote elegance in taste, somewhat susceptible temper and great interest in the opposite sex. Eyes with weakly-marked eyebrows above them, and with thinly-growing eyelashes which are complete without any upward curve, denote a feeble constitution and a melancholy disposition. Deep-sunken and small blue eyes under a bony, almost a perpendicular forehead, are indicative of selfish and cold-hearted natures. Eyes which show not only the whole of the iris but also some of the white, both above and below, denote a restless, uncertain nature, incapable of repose or concentrated thought on any subject. The eyes of a voluptuary move slowly under heavy lids. Round-shaped eyes are never seen in the face of a highly intellectual person, but they denote a kindly, truthful and innocent nature. Eyes which, when seen in profile, are so protuberant as to run almost parallel with the profile of the nose show a weak organization of body and mind. Eyes of rather close penetration, but close together, denote cunning and an untruthful disposition. Eyes rather far apart show an honest and guileless nature. When, however, the eyes are very far apart they denote stupidity. Eyes with sharply-defined angles, sinking at the corners, show stupidity of mind; the sharper the angle and the more it sinks the greater the delicacy of perception it denotes, but when very much developed it shows also craftiness amounting to deceit. Well-opened eyes with smooth eyelids and somewhat fixed glance, denote sincerity. Lines running along the eyelids from side to side and passing out upon the temples denote habitual laughter—a cheerful temperament, or, at any rate, one in which the sense of fun is strong.

Jersey's Queer Militia.

I have no very high opinion of the English militia, but it appears to be an invaluable military force in comparison with the militia of the Channel Islands. At the last inspection of the Jersey militia one whole regiment arrived on the field more or less under the influence of liquor. The men hung about in knots smoked, laughed at their officers' commands, and when at last they condescended to march past, performed the manœuvre in an idiotic fashion, which evoked the derision of the spectators. One or two warriors were committed to prison for this performance, but the regiment at large escaped with a lecture. The disbandment of this Falstaffian army would save the Jersey taxpayers £18,000 a year, and, were I a Jersey taxpayer, I do not think that I should rest until that desirable end was accomplished.—London Truth.

The Northern Pacific Railroad Company, it is believed, will assume control of the Seattle & Northern road, and this conjecture, coupled with the fact that the company is considering a bid from Mellett & Davidson of Sedro for 75,000 ties, leads the Sedro Press to the supposition that the Northern Pacific line will be extended up the Skagit valley with a view to crossing the mountains.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

The British Columbia Deposit and Loan Co., Ltd.

Capital $500,000 (with power to increase), Divided into 10,000 Shares of $50 each.

DIRECTORS:—The Hon. Sir Joseph W. Trutch, Victoria, K.C.M.G., Chairman, E. Crew Baker, Esq., Victoria; C. T. Dupont, Esq., Victoria; Thomas Earle, Esq. (Thos. Earle & Co.), Victoria, M.P., Merchant; Thomas B. Hall, (Victoria and Montreal, "Mount Royal Milling and Manufacturing Company, Limited), Victoria, Manufacturer; William Wilson, Esq. (W. & J. Wilson), Victoria, Merchant; Henry Young, Esq. (Henry Young & Co.), Victoria, Merchant.

OFFICES—Turner Block, Douglas Street, Victoria, B.C.

BANKERS—The Bank of British Columbia, Victoria, B.C.

MANAGER—J. Keith Wilson, Esq.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

1. To invest and lend money at interest on the security of real estate or other property in British Columbia and elsewhere, or any interest therein, including existing mortgages or other securities, also to purchase the bonds or debentures of any Government or Municipal body, or of any incorporated railway company, or other incorporated body.

2. To acquire, hold and sell any such property as aforesaid, purchased or aforesaid, or accepted as security for money advanced by or owing to the Company.

3. To build on, drain, let, farm, develop or otherwise utilize or improve, and generally exercise the rights of owners over any property the Company may lend on or acquire as interest in.

4. To undertake agencies and conduct financial business of any kind in British Columbia or elsewhere.

5. To receive and take money on deposit, or for investment on the guarantee of the Company or otherwise, or to guarantee payment of any money expressed to be secured by any mortgage.

6. To borrow money at interest, and to issue bonds or debentures as security therefor; and

7. To perform all such acts, matters and things as the Company may deem incidental or otherwise conducive to the attainment of any of the above objects, or to the conversion or disposition of any security or property held by the Company.

The organization of the Company is the result of the consideration by its promoters of the subject of Insurance, which now permeates nearly every class of mercantile business. When considering the subject it occurred to them that if the principle of Insurance in the form of a satisfactory guarantee for the due payment of interest at a rate to be agreed upon and against loss of principal, were to be applied to the ordinary investment of money on securities, a large percentage of capital now on deposit at low rates of interest in the savings banks and other depositorts, and which is locked up, would be withdrawn and become available for loans on securities, and thus be put in circulation.

With a view of offering such guarantee this Company has been incorporated with a capital of $500,000 (with power to increase), a small instalment only, viz., $10,000, of which has been called up to meet initiatory expenses. The remaining unpaid portion of this capital sum, viz., $490,000, shall form such guarantee to investors with the Company, which it is intended to supplement by the creation of a Reserve Fund, of which the unexpended balance of the capital called up shall form the nucleus.

It is further intended that no calls shall be made in respect to the unpaid capital except to meet liabilities.

The whole of the capital has been subscribed by persons whose position, both financially and socially, is believed to be unquestionable; and by the Articles of Association no person can hold more than 200 shares (representing $10,000), nor will any shareholder be at liberty to have transfer of his shares registered without the sanction of the Directors having been first obtained.

Deposits may be secured by debentures to be issued by the Company or by similar debentures secured by the hypothecation of securities taken by the Company.

Arrangements may be effected with the Company for the guarantee of securities approved by the Company.

Half Starved and Underpaid Soldiers Desert From the Italian Army.

LONDON, July 14.—The Italian military authorities have become profoundly alarmed at the number of desertions from the army, as shown by the recent reports received at the war office, and are thoroughly aroused to the necessity of immediate action in the direction of suppressing the evil. While the authorities profess ignorance of the existence of any reason for any dissatisfaction among the troops, there is scarcely a regiment in the Italian army to which the government is not greatly indebted in the matter of the payment of the monthly stipend. The officers fare as ill as the men.

This state of affairs, taken in connection with an insufficiant commissariat when the facilities for transportation are excellent, and a positive famine at times in the more remote points, easily explains the cause for desertion, which the officers, themselves dissatisfied, take no pains to prevent. There is no doubt that the paymaster is the official into whose hands the measures looking to the prevention of desertions could be most properly put.

VICTORIA REMEMBERED

In the July Number of the International Guide—Correct Information at Last.

The International Railway Guide, published at Montreal, seems to be more than usually conversant with British Columbia railroad affairs this month, and what is more, it is about the first publication of its kind that has reliable information about Victoria city. Its gazetteer contains the steamboat and railroad connections, the postal and banking facilities, and the population all very correctly. In the railroad notes it has to say of British Columbia: The session of the British Columbia Legislature just closed is interesting to railway men from the fact of the large number of charters that were granted for new railways. If only one-half of them are carried out, British Columbia, extensive as its territory is, will be amply served by the iron steed. There is, however, much activity in the work of construction on the roads already undertaken. The Shuswap and Okanagon railway, opening up a rich agricultural as well as mining region, has now reached Enderby, and is making rapid progress. The opening of the Mission branch of the Canadian Pacific railway near Vancouver, is one of those efforts emanating from a keen foresight on the part of the directorate of that corporation. Their enterprise is paying. Another important link between British Columbia and her neighbor to the south is found in the New Westminster Southern Railway, which connects by ferry at New Westminster and runs through to Blaine, Fairhaven, Sehome, Whatcom, Seattle and Tacoma. The citizens of Victoria are at present considering the question of bonusing a railway from some point on the Mainland to reach the Island by means of a ferry, and now the chief consideration is the nearest points on either side between which to work this ferry.

The Esquimalt & Nanaimo Railway is probably the shortest complete system in Canada. It runs between Victoria and Nanaimo on Vancouver Island, and was founded by the late Hon. Robert Dunsmuir. The distance covered is about 80 miles, taking in some of the most charming scenery. It seems like playing at railroading in miniature, but if it is play in this instance it is very profitable, for the road is said to pay handsomely, not only in passengers but in freight traffic. Its affairs are directed by a capable and careful management, of which Mr. A. Dunsmuir is president; Mr. Joseph Hunter, general superintendent, and Mr. H. K. Prior, general passenger agent. There is an idea prevalent that the road will be ultimately extended to the northern end of the Island, but this idea is still in its infancy.

THE GRASSHOPPER SCARE.

What Prof. Lugger Says—The Afflictions of Our Neighbors.

There is no question that dangerous species of grasshoppers have appeared in many places in this county as well as in the adjoining counties and on the Dakota side. Prof. Otto Lugger has arrived in Warren to investigate. He said that three different species of hoppers are found in our fields. The most abundant is the two-striped grasshopper, now mostly winged, and badly infested with parasites which either destroy them or render them incapable to reproduce. The next abundant is the Eastern migratory grasshopper, whose native home is the White Mountains, and from there they have scattered to different parts of the United States. This is the dangerous species and is more to be feared than the Rocky Mountain hopper, which it very much resembles. This species will exist under different climatic conditions and possesses great staying qualities. About 25 per cent. have already wings. The third species is the native red-legged grasshoppers, all without wings. Mr. Lugger says that a swarm of hoppers passed over this section of the country August 14 last year from the northwest going in a southeasterly direction. The greater portion of these were drowned in Rice lake in the White Earth reservation and by their decay such a stench was made that hunters were unable to remain at the lake. Stragglers from this swarm descended and laid their eggs in favorable localities, especially in stubble fields, producing our present crop of hoppers. The task of exterminating them will be an enormous one, unless aided by favorable conditions. By the aid of specially constructed machines of sheet iron, called "hopper-dosers," and the use of coal tar, it is possible to reduce the number. Deep plowing is the most effectual remedy. The professor said that the black potato beetle, which is said to be very numerous this year, is, in the larva state, a great destroyer of grasshopper eggs, and hence could not be killed. Of two evils choose the less. Mr. Lugger does not think the grasshoppers will seriously harm this year's crop, but that the real danger lies in their propagation next year.—Warren (Minn.) Sheaf.

Gladstone's Sublime Faith.

LONDON, July 15.—Mr. Gladstone, in a letter a few days ago, intimating that he would be unable to attend a Liberal meeting said: "We in our afflictions are deeply sensible of the mercies of God. He gave us for 50 years a most precious son; He has now only hidden him for a very brief space from the sight of our eyes. It seems a violent transition from such thoughts the arena of political contention, but the transition may be softened by the conviction we profoundly hope that we in the greatest of our present controversies work for the honor, well-being and future peace of our opponents not less than for our own."

MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION.

THE COUNCIL'S SYMPATHY APPRECIATED

By Lady Macdonald in Her Bereavement—The Aldermen Talkatively Inclined—A A Great Deal of Oratory and Very Little Business Done.

The meeting of the aldermanic board last night was characterized more by a spirit of oratory rather than of business. There was nearly half an hour spent in discussing the first communication, the result of which was the reference of the letter to the city barristers. The greater portion of the remainder of the evening was consumed in the discussion of the police magistracy.

His Worship Mayor Grant presided, and around the board were Aldermen A. J. Smith, W. D. McKillican, H. A. Munn, J. Robertson, F. G. Richards, jr., J. Holland, J. Hunter, J. Coughlan, and E. Renouf.

After routine, the usual batch of communications to council were taken up and considered. Among the most important were those from J. P. Walls with reference to certain land claimed by Mr. Holmes on Dallas road.

Ald. Richards said that Mr. Holmes had already had an opportunity of putting this claim before a committee of the city, and had not done so.

Ald. Robertson moved for the appointment of a committee to enquire into the question, and Ald Richards seconded the motion.

After considerable discussion the matter was referred to the city barristers.

From Paul Schulze, of Tacoma, as follows:

TACOMA, Wash., July 10, 1891.

Mr. John Grant, Mayor, Victoria, B. C.

DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of the letter of the clerk of the municipal council of your city, dated June 30, written by direction, relating to the question of railway connection between Victoria and the Northern Pacific system, attention to which has been delayed owing to my absence from the city.

It will afford me much satisfaction to conduct negotiations between your city authorities and the North American Company with a view of securing the construction of a railway connecting the city of Victoria with the Northern Pacific system. The undertaking is a large one, and the situation is aggravated by the unsatisfactory condition of the money market, particularly in Europe. However, I believe that, if the city of Victoria will do its share, I shall be able to bring about the desired result, as the people on the American side of the Straits of Fuca interested in the construction of a railroad between Gray's Harbor and the Straits, seem ready and anxious to contribute liberally to the consummation of the railroad scheme under consideration.

Of course the North American Company would have to carry on the construction of the railroads in view, by means of subsidiary companies,—on the American side through the Victoria, Port Crescent and Chehalis Railway Company, on your side through the Victoria and North American Railway Company, incorporated by your Provincial Assembly and Dominion Parliament.

I would respectfully suggest that your Municipal Council pass a by-law granting the necessary terminal grounds at Victoria, and guaranteeing the payment of a bonus of one million dollars to be paid to the Victoria and North American Railway Company immediately upon the completion of a railway and railway ferry via Port Beecher, connecting the city of Victoria with the Northern Pacific Railway system in the State of Washington, at or near Gray's Harbor; the North American Company to accept, within three months after the final passage of such by-law, the proposition of the city of Victoria, and to deposit, on the date of acceptance, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars in interest bearing securities to be approved by the city authorities, such securities to be returned to the North American Company as soon as the sum of two hundred thousand dollars shall have been expended by the North American Company upon the construction of the proposed line of the Victoria & North American Railway Company on Vancouver Island; the North American Company to begin actual construction not later than the first day of July, 1892, and to complete ready for operation the ferry and lines contemplated not later than August 1st, 1894.

I am confident that I shall be able to induce the management to undertake the construction of the proposed railways and ferry upon the conditions stated, as I am assured of liberal subsidies along the line of road in the State of Washington.

I shall be glad to hear from you further on the subject, and am ready to visit your city should my presence be deemed desirable. I have the honor to be, very respectfully, your obedient servant. (Signed) PAUL SCHULZE.

It was moved that the communication be received and laid on the table.

From W. H. Bainbridge asking permission to get water service laid to the Jockey Club track.—Referred to the water committee with power to act.

From Foster Macgurn asking for the use of a sprinkler and roller to prepare the lacrosse grounds (Caledonia grounds).—Granted.

From W. J. Dowler, secretary sewerage committee, enclosing a resolution of that body that the council place the sum of $25,000 to the credit of the committee.

Ald. Renouf trotted out the old horse "No funds."

Ald. Hunter thought this was only a little fun on the part of the chairman of finance committee. It was absolutely necessary to have this money, or stop the work on the sewers. It was possible to get the money, for there were many means of doing so.

The question was referred to His Worship and the finance committee with power to act.

From Hall, Ross & Co., offering to accept the debentures of the bonus of the flour mills for $10,000 at par.

The offer was accepted.

From W. J. Dowler, explaining the circumstances of the sum handed over to the council by the school trustees.

From Joseph Pope, private secretary of the late Sir John Macdonald.

EARNSCLIFFE, Ottawa,
June 29, 1891.

DEAR SIR,—Lady Macdonald desires me to ask you to be good enough to convey to the mayor and members of the municipal council of the City of Victoria her grateful thanks for their kind resolution of sympathy with her in her affliction, and of their recognition of the great loss sustained by Canada in the death of Sir John Macdonald.

Believe me to be,
Yours faithfully,
JOSEPH POPE.

To W. J. Dowler, Esq., Victoria, B.C.

From the Deputy Attorney-General with reference to the police magistracy, and stating that no intimation had been received by the government of the resignation of Hon. A. N. Richards, Q. C., from that position.

Ald. Hunter showed that there was nothing in the act requiring the city to formally inform the government of Mr. Richard's resignation, so that the letter of the Attorney-General was not to the point. It was sufficient for the city to simply acquaint the government of the appointment of Mr. Belyea, and it naturally followed that Mr. Richards was no longer police magistrate.

He moved that the Attorney-General be informed that as Mr. Richards had resigned it becomes necessary to appoint someone in his place, and as Mr. Belyea is the choice of the Council, the government be asked to confirm that commission.

Ald. Renouf seconded this motion.

Ald. Richards considered before Mr Belyea was appointed that that gentleman should be furnished with a copy of Mr. Boscowitz's communication with reserence to Mr. Belyea, so that he should have an opportunity of replying to the charges therein contained. He moved accordingly, seconded by Ald. Robertson.

Ald. Hunter asked if it was competent to supply a copy of this document, now on file, until the motion placing it on file had been rescinded.

Ald. Richards was of opinion that it was, and His Worship was of opinion that Ald. Richards was within the rules of order.

The voting in this motion resulted as follows: Ayes: Ald. Richards, Robertson, Smith and the Mayor. Nayes: Ald. Renouf, Holland, Hunter, Munn, McKillican and Coughlan.

Ald. Richard's amendment was lost.

From J. C. Redde promising that the request of the city that Mr. Belyea be placed on the commission of justice of the peace would receive consideration. Filed.

From J. A. Friend, asking when the market will be finished, the rent of stalls, etc.—Referred to the market committee.

From Eberts & Taylor, enclosing gravel pit by-law.

Ald. Holland—Didn't hear that by-law, move it be received and filed.

From Stuart Yates, A. G. Sargison and others, asking connection with the city water main.

From John Doherty and Peter Hansen, city scavengers, asking for a place to dispose of night refuse, as all places have now been shut against them in this direction.

Ald. Holland, in this connection, submitted a plan of a crematory to be erected on Clover Point for this purpose. He had consulted the trustees of the Douglas estate and found that the land could be purchased for about $2500 per acre.

After discussion the entire question was referred to the sanitary committee.

NOTICES OF MOTION.

Ald. Robertson moved that Hon. A N. Richards be appointed police magistrate and that a ballot be spread for his election.

On consideration he withdrew this motion, owing to the discussion which had taken place earlier in the evening.

Ald. Coughlan moved that a court of revision be held on the 18th August, to hear complaints in regard to city assessment.

Ald. Munn moved that tenders be called for the purchase of $25,000 worth of debentures for the B. C. Agricultural Association building.—Carried.

The tenders are to be returnable in two weeks.

The council arose at a quarter past 11 o'clock.

Quay for Senator.

NEW YORK, July 16.—R. R. Quay, son of U. S. Senator Quay, was seen at Sea Isle City, Cape May, yesterday. He said positively that his father will not accept a re-election as chairman of the National Republican Committee, but that he is a candidate for re-election as Senator from Pennsylvania, and is confident that he will be elected.

King of Medicines

A Cure "Almost Miraculous."

"When I was 14 years of age I had a severe attack of rheumatism, and after I recovered had to go on crutches. A year later, scrofula, in the form of white swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for 11 years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed 6 years. In that time ten or eleven sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. I feared I never should get well.

"Early in 1886 I went to Chicago to visit a sister, but was confined to my bed most of the time I was there. In July I read a book, 'A Day with a Circus,' in which were statements of cures by Hood's Sarsaparilla. I was so impressed with the success of this medicine that I decided to try it. To my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better, and in a short time I was up and out of doors. I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for about a year, when, having used six bottles, I had become so fully released from the disease that I went to work for the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since then on account of sickness. I believe the disease is expelled from my system, I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I am now 27 years of age and can walk as well as any one, except that one limb is a little shorter than the other, owing to the loss of bone, and the sores formerly on my right leg. To my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous, and I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the king of medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, 9 N. Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind.

HAVE NOT LOST A SINGLE DAY

AUCTION

IMPORTANT LAND SALE.

Victoria Arm, Prospect Lake, AND COMOX DISTRICT.

MONDAY, 27TH JULY, AT 11 A.M.

VICTORIA ARM.

Ten one-acre blocks of land, situated between Victoria Arm and Colquitz River, all fronting on a 60-foot road that extends from the Arm Road to the river. Also a four-acre block on the east side of the Colquitz, one corner of which touches on the Burnside Road. This land lies between the properties of Messrs. Austin and Adams. All this property is on a gentle slope and nearly all clear. The soil is first rate. These blocks are most desirable residential properties, and the neighborhood is considered one of the prettiest spots in the suburbs of Victoria City, and is destined in a short period to be very valuable. It is well sheltered from the cold winds.

PROSPECT LAKE.

Sections 132 and 133, containing about 95 acres each. The latter section has considerable frontage on the lake and about 30 acres of good land is cleared and fenced. There is a good road to this property. About 30 acres more can be easily cleared. The first section has considerable good land that can be easily cleared. The property is about six miles from Victoria. There are no Black Tail Deer or Ptarmigan on it, but lots of other game and lake trout. Either piece would make a most pleasant and desirable home.

COMOX DISTRICT.

Section 2—Containing 103 acres, fronting on the Comox River close to the Courtney town site, and three miles from the Comox wharf. This property was formerly owned by A. M. Stenhouse, ex-M.P.P.

Section 6—Newcastle District, containing 164 acres, fronting on Deep Bay. About 20 acres of this land has been cleared and cultivated. There is also a four-room house, barn and improvements. It lies about 10 miles south from the Union Mine wharf, and the Nanaimo road runs through it; also a good running stream.

Section 17—Containing 138 acres. Adjoining Section 6, and fronting on Deep Bay. Both those sections were formerly occupied by W. H. Grove.

Section 79—Comox District, containing 160 acres. About 20 acres have been cleared, and cabin and barn erected. It has a good stream of running water; is on a good road; about five miles from Comox wharf. This is good, level land and soil; a large portion is alder bottom. Was formerly owned by Joe Rodello.

Section 119—Comox District. One hundred acres fronting on Comox River. This section adjoins 79. All flat river bottom land. A good deal of this land is alder bottom. This is one of the finest fishing frontages on the river.

TERMS OF SALE—25 per cent. cash; the balance in equal payments in one and two years, with interest at 6 per cent. per annum.

COAL

(FORMERLY THE VANCOUVER COAL CO.),

ARE THE LARGEST COAL PRODUCERS ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

THE NANAIMO COAL

(Used principally for Gas and Domestic Purposes).

THE SOUTH FIELD COAL

(Steam Fuel).

THE NEW WELLINGTON COAL

(House and Steam Coal) are mined by this Company only.

THE "NANAIMO" COAL gives a large percentage of Gas, a high Illuminating Power, unequalled by any other bituminous Gas Coal in the world, and a superior quality of Coke.

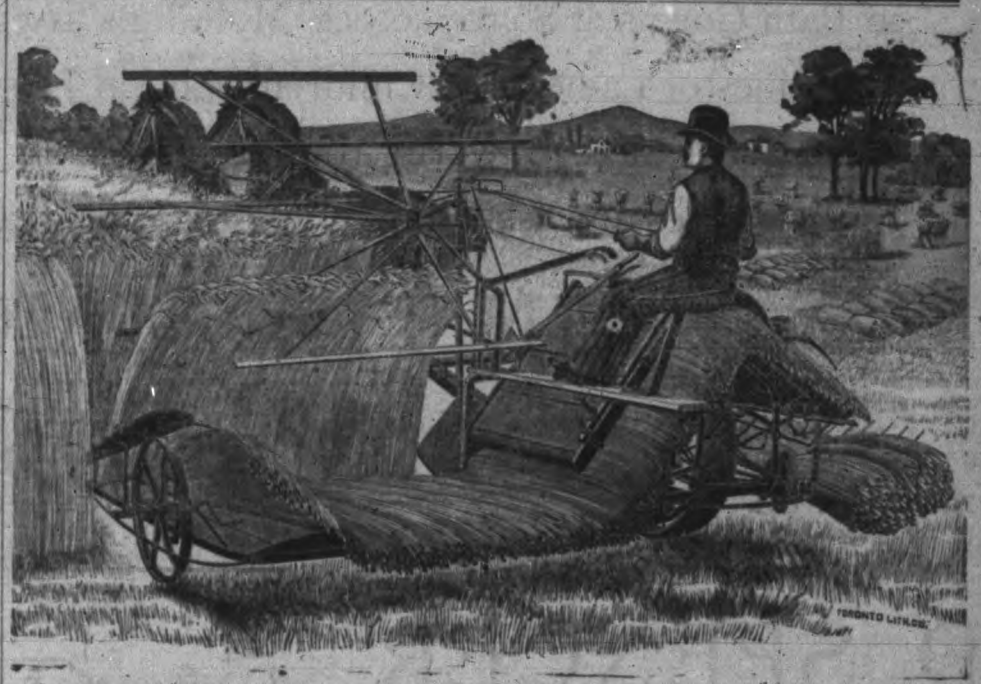
THE "SOUTH FIELD" COAL is now used by all the Leading Steamship Lines on the Pacific.

THE "NEW WELLINGTON" COAL, which was introduced early in the present year, has already become a favorite fuel for domestic purposes. It is a clean, hard coal, makes a bright and cheerful fire, and its lasting qualities make it the most economical fuel in the market.

The several Mines of the Company are connected with their Wharves at Nanaimo and Departure Bay, where ships of the largest tonnage are loaded at all states of the tide. Special dispatch is given to Mail and Ocean steamers.

SAMUEL M. ROBINS,
Superintendent.

Dec. 30.



THE BRANTFORD NO. 3 ADJUSTABLE OPEN BACK STEEL BIND R

Loud in Fashions for Men.

The popular color for men's morning suits in London this season is brown. There are dozens of shades of that color. The russet browns and the dull browns, in which there is a slight mingling of grey, are the shades that go off best. Trousers have undergone some slight alteration as regards shape since last year. They follow the shape of a peg-top somewhat, and are worn loose at the knees and tight over the boots. Striped patterns are considered better taste than checks. The frock coat is more fashionable than ever, and only in a few details does it differ from last season's shape. It is considered to look very elegant on tall men with good figures; but neither a very tall, thin man, nor a little, stout man, ought to wear a frock coat. It makes the one look like a lamp-post and the other literally all coat.

A Nationalist Plan.

A proposal, which would obtain favor with even the opponents of nationalism, contemplates the placing of a supply sufficient for each family of nature's great dyspepsia specific and blood purifier, B.B.B., in every home in the land. The benefits of such a boon to the people would be incalculable.

COUNTER CRUMBS

That's a good name for them; or, we might call them

"CLEARANCE CRUMBS,"

They are the crumbs of our season's stock.

You Know How It Is

Every season sees some broken line left on our counters; odd pieces, and patterns. These we call "crumbs." They go at crumb prices. Remember these are

Not Stale Crumbs,

But every crumb is fresh and of the best. Every article is worth to you as much as when we bought it. But you can buy now at less than the worth—yes, less than cost. We have placed these crumbs on our

Half Price Counter

And these goods will be sold at just half regular prices.
